The Institute of Inspection, Cleaning and Restoration Certification (IICRC) is proud to announce that The Ecosteam Corporation, located in DeKalb, Illinois recently has qualified as a Certified Firm. This company has met the following IICRC criteria:

- Agrees to uphold honesty, integrity, and competency in all dealings with consumers.
- Maintains appropriate licenses, permits, and bonds.
- Carries adequate insurance coverage at all times to protect consumers and employees.
- Maintains customer complaint procedure for resolving issues.
- Establishes and maintains a professional attitude in conducting business.
- Seeks, provides, and promotes training and continuing education in the firm to enhance technician proficiency.

Tom Hill, IICRC Executive Administrator, states Ecosteam is an example of the type of company that cares about their customers, their quality of work, and their industry. Ecosteam has further demonstrated the desire to provide customers with thorough professional and caring service.

The Institute of Inspection, Cleaning and Restoration Certification (IICRC) is the foremost authority in the certification and standard setting for the carpet and upholstery cleaning, restoration and inspection industry since 1972. With over 32,000 certified technicians and over 3,600 certified firms representing eleven countries. By administering a strict process of certification, the IICRC provides a means by which consumers can receive the highest quality of service from trained, knowledgeable, professional technicians.
